Re: MONROE v. TOWN OF HAVERSTRAW
POLICE OFFICER SEAN CAMBEL, et al.
Docket No.: 7:20-cv-10944 (PMH)
Our File No.: (TRV) 72111

Dear Honorable Judge Halpern:

This firm represents the defendants, Town of Haverstraw Police Officer Sean Campbell (s/h/a Town of Haverstraw Police Officer Sean Cambel), Police Officer William Santiago, Lieutenant Ian Kaye, and the Town of Haverstraw (hereinafter referred to as “defendants”), in the above-referenced matter. We write to the Court respectfully seeking a brief adjournment of the time of the telephonic Case Management Conference scheduled for June 15, 2022, which is currently scheduled that day at 11:30 a.m. as per the Court’s Order, dated April 14, 2022.

It is respectfully submitted that the defendants’ trial counsel, Kenneth E. Pitcoff, Esq. of this office is not available at 11:30 a.m. as he has a prior commitment that will prevent him from being able to appear for said conference at that time. However, Mr. Pitcoff is available anytime that same day after 12:00 p.m. Therefore, it is respectfully requested that the conference be adjourned to a time after 12:00 p.m. on June 15, 2022. This is the first request for an adjournment of the aforementioned Case Management Conference.

Your undersigned attempted to obtain pro se plaintiff’s consent to this application, but he has failed to respond. Specifically, your undersigned called pro se plaintiff and left him a voicemail on April 20, 2022, at approximately 12:30 p.m. In addition, your undersigned also emailed him promptly thereafter requesting that he advise whether he would consent to this request for a brief adjournment. Presently, pro se plaintiff has not responded to your undersigned either by telephone and/or email.

We thank the Court in advance for its consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Frank H. Foster
